

Ihagee –
the Men and the Cameras

The story of the Ihagee Camera Company of Dresden, and the men who created the Exakta – the definitive 35mm single lens reflex camera – and many others

Peter Longden

Ihagee – the Men and the Cameras

This book describes not only the Exaktas but nearly all other Ihagee cameras

By Peter Longden

You may download it from www.exaktacircle.org/Books/ihageemen&cam.pdf

70MB

Contents

Introduction

1. Johan Steenberg – The Reluctant Tailor
2. Marcolinistraße - and the birth of Ihagee
3. The move to Gottfried-Keller Straße
4. Schandauer Straße – “The House of a Thousand Hands”
5. Years of growth – and the birth of a legendary camera.
6. 1939 and turmoil
7. The Restart.
Blasewitzerstraße, the Russians, and the German Democratic Republic.
8. Exakta Varex ! The legend continues.
9. The last years
10. In retrospect

Appendices:

- (a) Glossary
- (b) Model listing and body numbers
- (c) Accessories
- (d) The critical letters from the Communist Government to Ihagee - 1945-1948.