

Reference sheet for the instruction manual "EXAKTA RTL 1000"

When employing lenses with an automatic diaphragm mechanism and "external release" the attached lengthening piece has to be screwed into the coupling point (16) situated on the left side of the camera. By means of this lengthening piece the EXAKTA RTL 1000 can be manually released also on the left side.